

THE SCOTT J. & MARGARET W. HINSCH COMMUNITY SERVICE AWARDS 2022 GUIDELINES

Deadline: January 24, 2022

The Hinsch Family Fund of The Piqua Community Foundation offers The Scott J. Hinsch & Margaret W. Hinsch Community Service Awards annually to recognize outstanding volunteers for charitable organizations. The fund was established by Scott and Margaret Hinsch's children and their spouses, John and Marsha Hinsch and Linda and the late Bob Campbell. The awards honor Scott and Margaret's legacy of service to the Piqua community.

Two awards will be made each year:

- The Scott J. Hinsch Community Service Award to one male nominee
- The Margaret W. Hinsch Community Service Award to one female nominee

The awards recognize the work of volunteers making an impact on the Piqua community on behalf of one organization during one calendar year. The awards given in 2022 will honor volunteer work done in the 2021 calendar year.

Nominated volunteers must have served as an unpaid volunteer for a charitable organization that maintains a 501(c)(3) or equivalent status. The work completed by the volunteer must have a demonstrated impact on Piqua residents. Nominated volunteers do not need to live in Piqua, and the organization's office does not need to be located in Piqua.

The nominating individual must be a paid staff member or board member of the nominating organization. Organizations may nominate more than one individual each year. An organization whose nominee has previously won a Hinsch Community Service Award may nominate a different volunteer in a subsequent year.

Any past winning volunteer may not be nominated again by any organization. Find a list of past Hinsch Community Service Award winners at piquacommunityfoundation.org/hinsch.

Each selected award winner will each receive a glass plaque, and the organizations that nominated the winners will each receive a $2,000 unrestricted grant to serve the Piqua community from The Hinsch Family Fund of The Piqua Community Foundation.

The deadline to submit written applications to The Piqua Community Foundation for the awards is January 24, 2022. The Foundation will notify nominators of award winner decisions. The awards will be presented on the morning of February 21, 2022, and the nominating individuals need to assist The Foundation in surprising the winning volunteers.

A complete application includes a typed cover page and up to one optional page of additional information, such as a letter of reference or a sample of the nominated volunteer's work. Applications are accepted by email to info@piquacommunityfoundation.org, hand delivery to 209 West Ash Street, Piqua, Ohio, or mail to P.O. Box 226, Piqua, OH 45356. Regardless of delivery method, the application must be received by the deadlines stated above for consideration.
